

Arthur Baker, Former Blairite, January 15 ✓

Word was received in Blair of the death of Arthur Baker, 68 years, of Cotopaxi, Colo. at Kearney, Nebraska, January 15.

Mr. Baker was a former Blair resident and had been a section foreman on the Chicago Northwestern Railroad while in Blair. In Colorado he had been a Roadmaster on the Denver, Rio Grande Railroad until his retirement January 1, 1966.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker had been visiting Nebraska relatives since before Christmas. Two weeks ago they had visited in Blair. They were enroute home and were visiting the Russel Jensen home when Mr. Baker suffered a heart attack.

Services were held at Kearney, Nebraska Saturday, January 18 at 10 o'clock with Masonic graveside rites and burial at Arnold, Nebraska.

Mr. Baker is survived by his wife, Mollie, three sons, Robert and Arthur, Jr. of Omaha and

James of Fort Bragg, North Carolina and two daughters, Mrs. Tracy (Anita Jane) Stuart of Westminster, Colorado and Mrs. T. L. (Corrine) de Jarnette of Las Vegas, Nevada. There are fourteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Two brothers survive. They are Alfred of Arlington, Nebraska and Alvin of Pueblo, Colorado and two sisters, Mrs. Irvin (Margaret) Stolley and Mrs. Guy (Charlotte) Stricklett of Blair.

Jessie McMillan, Calhoun Post Mistress, Died ✓

Miss Jessie McMillan, well-known Ft. Calhoun native and Post Mistress, died Tuesday evening, January 21, of a heart attack at her home in Fort Calhoun.

Funeral services have been set for Friday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. at the Fort Calhoun Presbyterian Church, the Reverend Keith Sackett in charge.

Miss McMillan was a life-long resident of Fort Calhoun, born July 5, 1910 in the east Nebraska town. She was graduated from the Ft. Calhoun High School in 1928 and continued to live in Fort Calhoun while she worked on the Fort Calhoun Chronicle after high school.

Jessie, as she was known to many who dropped by the Post Office, was appointed Post Mistress in 1946 and held that position until the time of her death. Jessie was well liked and will be long remembered for her effervescent spirit and helpful attitude displayed in her work at the Post Office.

Survivors of Miss McMillan are two sisters, Mrs. Jane Suverkrubbe and Mrs. Dorothy Froehlich, of Fort Calhoun and a brother, Mr. Neal McMillan, of Dodge City, Kansas.

The Sievers Funeral Home of Fort Calhoun is in charge of arrangements for the services.

HANS FRAHM, 73, DIED SATURDAY ✓

Hans H. Frahm, 73, a former Washington county man who has been living in Omaha, died Saturday at Bergan Mercy hospital in Omaha. He was well known here.

Mr. Frahm is survived by his wife, Verna and by two sons and a step-daughter.

The sons are Arnold and Harold Frahm, both of Blair. The daughter is Mrs. Raymond Williams (Lucille) of Bellevue, Nebraska.

In addition, there are five brothers and three sisters who survive.

The brothers are Chris and Randolph, both of Blair; Otto of North Platte; Fred of Dixon, Nebraska; and Edgar, of Fort Calhoun.

The sisters are Mrs. Hans Rathjen (Katie) of Ft. Calhoun; Mrs. Lawrence Weber (Edna) of Mead, Nebraska and Mrs. Clarence Young (Helen) of Omaha.

There are eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild also surviving. One daughter had preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, January 7th at Brewer-Korisko Mortuary in Omaha.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Minnie Gosker ✓

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Redeemer Lutheran Church for Mrs. Minnie Gosker, 89, who died at a Fremont Hospital January 3. Rev. Henry Gittler conducted the service.

Interment was in Vacoma Cemetery, with Wollmer & Warne in charge.

Mrs. Gosker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Niederkruger, was born February 17, 1879, in Washington County. She had lived in Washington County and the Hooper area all of her life.

On February 19, 1902 she married William Gosker in the St. John's Lutheran Church of Vacoma in Washington County, the church to which she belonged all her life until it was abandoned several years ago.

Mr. Gosker preceded her in death, as did two children.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Viola Krinke of Rochester, Minn., two sons, Delmer of Blair, and Ray of Hooper, four grandchildren, and two great grandchildren.

Goose, Regina C.
1-22-69 ✓
GOTSCH—Marie C., age 60 years, residence 3325 No. 61st St. Survived by husband, Fred H.; daughter, Mrs. Dean (Joan) Jacobson, Omaha; three brothers, Leonard Hoier, Washington, Neb., Edward Hoier, Iliff, Colo., Elvin Hoier, Bennington, Neb.; five sisters, Mrs. Alice Anderson, Battle Creek, Neb., Mrs. Mildred Heyne, Pender, Neb., Mrs. Jorgena Luschen, Bennington, Neb., Mrs. Elna Betts, Mrs. Lillian Grant, both of Omaha; three grandchildren.
Funeral service 1:30 p. m. Friday at Kountze Memorial Lutheran Church. Interment Evergreen Memorial Park. Memorials are acceptable to Kountze Memorial Lutheran Church.
ROEDER MORTUARY
50th and Ames Ave. 453-5600

FATHER OF FORMER BLAIR WOMAN DIES ✓

John Kruse, 81-year-old Fremont, Nebr. man, formerly of the Bennington area, died Saturday, January 25th, it has been learned here. Mr. Kruse was the father of Mrs. Clarence L. Anderson, former Blair resident who now lives at Audubon, Iowa. Mr. Kruse is survived by his wife, his daughter (Mrs. Anderson) and three sons, none of whom live in this area.

Mrs. Clark Cowing, of Blair is a granddaughter of Mr. Kruse and Christopher Cowing of Blair is one of the five surviving great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday and burial was made in