

Milo Clements Is County's 2nd Vietnam Casualty

SP. 4 MILO CLEMENTS

E 3-13-69
Had Received Citation
Only Eleven Days
Before His Death

Milo Clements, son of Eugene Clements of Blair, became Washington County's second casualty of the Vietnam war Sunday, word of his injuries and death having been relayed to relatives here late Sunday evening.

Specialist 4, Milo Clements died of wounds received in action in Vietnam on Saturday, March 8th. He was on a combat mission and received injuries from fragmentation of a booby trap. He died at 7 A.M. Sunday.

On March 6th relatives had received a letter from him which was written on February 28th, telling of receiving a special citation two days earlier. It was an Air Medal Certificate by the direction of the President, for meritorious action while participating in air mobile missions over hostile territory, in support of ground combat from November 7, 1968 to January 15, 1969. To qualify 25 air mobile missions were required. Since then he had made over 25 more missions and was about to receive an Oak Cluster medal.

The citation he received on February 26th stated that he had brought Credit upon himself, his organization and the U. S. Army.

Milo was born September 30th, 1948 at Blair to Eugene Clements and the late Merle French Clements. He graduated from Blair High School in 1966 and attended Dana College for one year. In High School he lettered in track, football and basketball and in basketball at college. He entered the service on February 20, 1968 and left for Vietnam July 16, 1968. He was serving with the 3rd Battalion, 60th Infantry of the 9th Infantry Division in the Mekong Delta.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Blair.

He is survived by his father, Eugene Clements and Mrs. Clements, three brothers Roger, Saylor and Mark; two sisters, Patricia and MerriBeth; Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Clements and Mrs. Bessie Rhoades and a step-grandfather Edward Giesselman.
