Col. J. D. Test, about 40 years of age, an attorney in Council Bluffs since 1853, except for a year in which he ran a successful business in Colorado, has died. He held the position of State Senator at least one and perhaps two terms. Gov. Saunders of Omaha was his associate in the Iowa State Senate and will bear testimony to the honorable and able bearing of our lamented friend in that body. Col. Test leaves a single child of seven or eight years. The death of his wife several years ago and subsequently of his eldest daughter visited on our late friend a crushing affliction, which, as he often told us, he was scarcely able to bear. He has gone to join those he so long and deeply mourned. WH 3-19-69
