

Capt. Harvey P. Kelley

Killed In Vietnam Nov. 20

Son Of Mr. And
Mrs. Herman Kuhl ✓
Lost Life Thursday

to 11-27-69
Captain Harvey Paul Kelley, of 3908 North 70th St., Omaha, a son of Herman Kuhl of Blair, was killed in action in Vietnam about 10:00 A. M. last Thursday, November 20th.

Captain Kelley commanded an infantry company and was on a combat mission at the time. His company had been stationed northwest of Da Nang for about five months and had been out on daily patrol during that time. The notifying telegram stated that Capt. Kelley's patrol encountered a hostile force that morning and Capt. Kelley was killed in the action.

Capt. Kelley was due to be relieved of combat duty and assigned to an intelligence post on December 5.

Harvey Kelley was born November 23, 1937 at Little Rock, Arkansas. He graduated from Irvington High School in 1955. He had joined the National Guard before graduation and was called to active duty in the Army after his graduation. He was assigned to Officer Candidate School at Fort Benning, Georgia, from which he graduated April 7, 1964, with a commission as second lieutenant. He was in the upper 10% of his class there.

He was assigned to Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri, where he was cited for two years for having the best company on the post, and promoted to first lieutenant.

He went to Vietnam in 1966 as an American advisor to the Vietnamase Rangers. He had completed one tour of duty there and was promoted to captain. After a tour of duty at Fort Benning, he was sent back to Vietnam in command of Co. A, 18th Infantry regiment of the 1st Infantry Division. This was his command at the time of his death.
