

Services For Howard Masters To Be Monday

5-18-70 ✓

A well known Arlington farmer died suddenly Thursday evening while hunting mushrooms on his farm south-east of Arlington. He was Howard Masters of Arlington.

Services for Mr. Masters will be on Monday, May 18, at 2 p.m. Services will be in the Arlington Community Church with Rev. Leo Zillig officiating. Burial will be in the Arlington Cemetery. Reckmeyer Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. 280 yr ✓

Mr. Masters lived on the farm with his sister, Maude Masters. Just a few weeks ago a brother, Glenn, who also lived at the farm, passed away.

Survivors besides Maude, is another sister, Mrs. Glenn Brauner, of Nebraska City.

Maude became concerned when Howard didn't return in a reasonable length of time from his mushroom hunting. A search was started when a neighbor was called. Mr. Masters was found in a valley on the farm. The Arlington Ambulance Squad was called but had trouble getting to Mr. Masters because of Mr. Masters' dog who was protecting him.

It is believed Mr. Masters died of a massive stroke.

A complete obituary on Mr. Masters will appear in the next issue of the Blair Newspapers.
