

7-27-70 ✓
MRS. LOUIS VOSS
DIED WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Louis Voss, a lifetime resident of the Blair area, died at the Senior Citizens Home in Tekamah last Wednesday, July 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Voss resided at 757 North 15th Street in Blair but she had been at Tekamah for a time due to ill health.

She was born on a farm 8 miles south of Blair on May 30th, 1894 and was, therefore, 76 years old at the time of her death. She grew up in the vicinity of her birth and was married to Louis Voss who survives her. The couple farmed until their retirement when they moved to Blair.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a son, Glenn Voss of Kelliher, Minnesota and by four grandchildren.

A sister, Mrs. Arthur Hansen lives in Blair.

Funeral services were held at the Bendorf Funeral Home Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Sanford Sorgen conducted the service and burial was made in the Blair Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Henry, John,

LeRoy, Elmer, Leo and Howard Voss, all relatives of the deceased woman.

7-27-70 ✓ Danes
MRS. MARY NIELSEN
DIED WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Mary Nielsen, lifetime resident of Washington County, died at her home at 1557 Butler Street last Wednesday, July 22nd. She was 79 years old.

Mrs. Nielsen was born at Kennard February 16th, 1891. She grew up in that vicinity and was married to Miller Nielsen. The couple farmed for many years. Her husband preceded her in death.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Niels Christensen (Ruth) of Kennard and Mrs. Jack Maher (Irene) of California. A brother, Andrew Christiansen, lives at Kennard.

Funeral services were held Saturday, July 25th at Emmaus Lutheran Church in Kennard with the Rev. Arden Dorn conducting the service. Burial was made in Prairie View Cemetery under the direction of the Campbell Mortuary of Blair.

The pallbearers were William Maher, John Maher, Larry Christensen, Daniel Christensen, Mark Christensen and Richard Gliem.

HERBERT OERMAN OF HERMAN DIED AT HIS HOME THURS.

8-3-70 ✓
Herbert Oerman, a lifetime farmer in the area west of Herman, died suddenly at his home Thursday, July 30th. Cause of the death was not announced.

Mr. Oerman was born March 28, 1900, on the farm which became his home for his entire life, west of Herman. He was considered a good farmer and a good neighbor and he carried a lifetime active interest in the Emmanuel Lutheran Church of which he was an elder at the time of his death.

He was married to Ruth Hartung September 10, 1924, and she survives her husband's death.

Also surviving are two sons, Bernard of Herman and Marline of Craig, Nebraska. A daughter Ione, Mrs. Marvin Hoeneman, lives at Craig. There are eight grandchildren. A brother, Lawrence Oerman, lives at Fontanelle.

Funeral services were held Sunday, August 2nd at Emmanuel Lutheran Church with the Rev. H.G. Stoll conducting the service. Burial was made in the church cemetery under the direction of the Warne Funeral Home of Hooper.

7-20-70 ✓
Chiropractor
Rites Planned

Services for Dr. Louis Hendricksen, 86, of 2708 North Fifty-second Street, a chiropractor in Omaha 38 years, will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Crosby-Kunold Funeral Home. Burial will be at Hillcrest Memorial Park.

He died Saturday at an Omaha hospital after a one-month illness.

Dr. Hendricksen was born on a farm near Fort Calhoun. He received his professional training in Chicago, and opened a chiropractic clinic at Twenty-fifth and O Streets in Omaha in 1927. He retired in 1965.

The survivors include nieces and nephews.

One cubic foot of water

THEODORE KUHL,
85, PASSES AWAY

7-20-70 ✓
Funeral Services were held Friday in the Fort Calhoun Presbyterian Church for Theodore Kuhl, 85, who passed away Tuesday, July 14, at the Douglas County Hospital in Omaha.

Mr. Kuhl formerly was a farmer in the Omaha area, and at the time of his death was making his home with a brother in Omaha.

Survivors include four brothers, Rudolph of Blair, William of Hershey, and Louis and Paul of Omaha, and two sisters, Emma Thompson of Sutherland, and Minnie Klambunde of Omaha.

Interment was in the Fort Calhoun Cemetery, and was in charge of Sievers Funeral Home. Rev. Keith Sackett conducted the services.