

11-2-70
BEVERLY STOCKTON
RITES WILL BE
THIS AFTERNOON

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at the Campbell Mortuary for Beverly JoAnn Stockton who died in an Omaha hospital Thursday.

Mrs. Stockton, 38, was born at Oakland, Nebraska, July 31, 1932 but lived most of her life in the Omaha area. She was the daughter of the late Gladys Rogert, of the Blair area.

She is survived by one daughter and four sons. The daughter is Mrs. Roger Lambrecht (Sherry). The sons are Larry Miller, of Okinawa, Glenn Stockton, Randy and Joe Stockton, all of Omaha. Her mother, Gladys Jensen, also survives and resides in Omaha.

The Rev. William Watkins, of Omaha, will conduct the services today at the Campbell Mortuary at 2:00 P.M. Burial will be made in the Blair Cemetery.

16-26-70
Services For
Orval Scheffler
Friday Afternoon

Former Business Man
And Blair Mayor
Died Last Wednesday

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon for Orval Scheffler, long-time Blair businessman and former Blair Mayor. The well known Blairite had died suddenly last Wednesday afternoon. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

ORVAL SCHEFFLER

Orval Arthur Scheffler was born June 16, 1897 at Creston, Nebraska, but he moved to Blair with his parents at an early age and had lived here since that time. He was 73 years of age.

He grew to manhood in Blair, graduated from Blair High School and later was married to Miss Alice Beck, also of Blair.

He served several terms on the City Council, representing Ward 2 and was Mayor of the City of Blair for two terms.

Prior to that he had been active in the Blair Fire Department and had been President of the Department.

As a younger man he had been 10-22-70

Orval Scheffler
Died Suddenly
Wednesday

Orval Scheffler, lifetime resident of Blair and long-time businessman here, died suddenly Wednesday afternoon. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Mr. Scheffler was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Scheffler who was an early-day leather goods and harness maker here for many years. He was a graduate of Blair High School and for years has been an enthusiastic sports fan with a special interest in baseball.

The business started by his father, and which he, himself operated for years, is still operating under the direction of his son, Jim Scheffler.

He is a former Blair Councilman and Mayor and served numerous posts with the fire department and other civic bodies.

He is survived by his wife, Alice, and by a son, James. One son preceded him in death.

The Campbell Mortuary is in charge of services which are pending. A complete obituary will appear in Monday's Pilot-Tribune.

10-8-70
MRS. COLUMBUS WULF BURIED TUESDAY

Mrs. Columbus Wulf died Sunday, October 3rd, at the Blair Community Hospital.

Magdalena Caroline Logemann was born April 6, 1891 in Bennington. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Logemann.

On February 14, 1912 she was married to Columbus Wulf and they were the parents of two sons, Elmer and Roy. Mr. Wulf died in October 1967.

Survivors besides Elmer of Blair and Roy of Omaha are five grandchildren. Also two brothers Henry Logemann of Nelson, Nebraska, and John Logemann of Omaha and a sister, Mrs. Matt Neu of Elkhorn, Nebraska.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, October 6th at the First Lutheran Church in Blair. The Rev. Sanford D. Sorgen officiated. The Bendorf Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements and burial was in the Blair Cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Larry Wulf, Dennis Johansen, Leonard Logemann, Alan Neu, Mylan Kruse and Arnold Luschen.

very active in athletics and for a time sponsored many athletic activities in the community. He was an All-Star First Baseman and at one time had been a semi-pro pitcher.

He is survived by his wife, Alice and by one son, James Scheffler, of Blair. Three sisters also survive. They are Mrs. Alfred O. Sick (Gussie) and Mrs. Wilbur Lowe (Helen) both of Blair and Mrs. Burt Williams (Inez) of Rockford, Ill. There is also one grandson.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at St. Mary's Episcopal Church with Father Robert D. Bee conducting the service. Burial was made in the Blair Cemetery under the direction of the Campbell Mortuary.

Pallbearers were E. A. Schmidt, Bert Hansen, Richard Zimmerman, Jr., Don Schettler, Jens Jensen and Wayne Anderson.