

Arnold Rogert Died At Herman During Blizzard

1-7-71
Arnold Rogert, of Herman, Nebraska, has been listed as a victim of the worst snow storm in Eastern Nebraska for the past 25 years. Mr. Rogert died of a heart attack. Reports have it that Mr. Rogert was at the Don Anderson farm west of Herman when he passed away. Rogert's vehicle had become stuck and he was seeking help at the Anderson farm when he was stricken.

The Blair Rescue Squad was called but Mr. Rogert was pronounced dead by the time the unit had plowed through the snow to the Anderson farm. Mr. Rogert was Postmaster at Herman and lived on a farm west of Herman.

Arnold Frederick Rogert, known all his life as "Sonny", was born August 29, 1921 on a farm near Herman in Washington County, where he spent his entire life, except while in Military service. He passed away January 3, 1971, age 49 years, 4 months and 6 days.

He attended school at the Brodersen and New England Schools and was a graduate of Herman High School.

As a youth, he was confirmed in the Lutheran Faith and was a member of the Herman Federated Church.

He served in the United States Air Force from July, 1942, until February, 1946.

On January 14, 1943, he was united in marriage to Virginia West of Herman, Nebraska, at Rantoul, Illinois. To this union two children were born: Mrs. David Klein (Cathy) of Herman and David at home. He also leaves to mourn, his mother, Mrs. Emma Rogert of Blair; one brother, Emmett Rogert of Blair; three sisters, Miss Phyllis Rogert, Mrs. Lou McGargill (Ada) and Mrs. Harriet Potter all of Omaha, Nebraska.
