Funeral services were held for Carrie M. Nygaard at Creighton, Nebraska last Wednesday following her death in Blair at the Memorial Community Hospital on Sunday, June 27th. Mrs. Nygaard, a former resident of Washington County, had been making her home at the Good Shepherd Home.

She was born at Kallerup, Denmark, June 19, 1891. As an infant she moved with her family to the United States and the family settled in the vicinity of Gordon, Nebraska. Later they moved to the Creighton, Nebraska area.

On August 19, 1914 she was united in marriage to Nels P. Nygaard. They farmed for a number of years and then moved to the Blair area in 1940. They continued farming in this area for 14 years, returning to Creighton in 1954.

She became a resident of the Good Shepherd Home in 1965.

She is survived by six children. They are: Rev. Marvin Nygaard, Huxley, Iowa; Vera (Mrs. Clarence Nelson) and Alta (Mrs. Carl Jorgensen) of Creighton, Nebraska, Wilma (Mrs. Dale Hill) of Milton, Pennsylvania, Rev. Gerhard Nygaard of Northfield, Minnesota, Janice (Mrs. Frederik Jensen) of Evan, Minnesota.

Three sisters and one brother also survive. There are 21 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Harold (Snowy) Wulff, of rural Blair, was killed in a two-car collision which occurred about 9:00 P.M. Saturday evening, June 26, near the intersection of two county roads. Mr. Wulff was listed as "Dead on Arrival" when brought to the Blair Memorial Hospital by the Rescue Squad.

Also listed on the rescue squad report were Mrs. Harold Wulff, with cuts and back injuries; Linda Sprick, with back injuries and cuts; and Kevin Fleming, with cuts.

The collision took place just east of the intersection south of the Raymond Wilson farm, 3 miles north and 2 miles west of Blair. At this point the Chevrolet driven by Mr. Wulff, driving west, was in collision with a Chevrolet sedan driven by Kevin Fleming of Blair. The Fleming vehicle was going east. The collision was practically head-on and both cars were demolished. Mrs. Wulff was a passenger in the car with her husband and Linda Sprick was a passenger in the Fleming vehicle.

Steve Rigas, of Omaha, who is a cousin of Miss Sprick, was also a passenger in the Fleming automobile. He sustained minor cuts and bruises.

Mr. Wulff, known universally as "Snowy", was a longtime resident of the Spiker neighborhood, where he had worked on the farms of Albert and Wesley Sprick for over 40 years.

Harold Christian Wulff, known to his friends as "Snowy", was born November 19, 1911 at Fontanelle. He had spent his entire life as a farmer, most of the time associated with the late Albert Sprick and more recently with Wesley Sprick who now operates the home farm.

He is survived by his wife, Violet, who is in serious condition at the Blair hospital following the accident and by one son, Jerry, who lives at Malvern, New York. There are three grandchildren.

His stepmother, Mrs. Nels Wulff, resides in Fremont.

Mr. Wulff had four sisters: Mrs. Robert Jenkins (JoAnn) of La-Crosse, Wisconsin; Mrs. William Mutschler (Winnona) and Mrs. Louis Schurkam (Leona), both of Concord, California; and Mrs. Irvin May (Mildred) of Fremont.

There are two brothers: Virgil Wulff of ElSabrante, California and Irvin of Ontario, Oregon.

Funeral services will be held at the First Lutheran church this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 p.m. The Rev. Sanford D. Sorgen will conduct the service. Burial, under the direction of the Bendorf Funeral Home, will be made at the Blair Cemetery.

Pall bearers will be Victor Enger, Earl Stokes, Russell Ryan, Chester Spiker, Walter Koenig and Curtis Behrendt.
